Just a reminder that next week is half term and the nursery is closed

It is World Book Day on Thursday 2nd March. We will be celebrating bedtime reading. Please feel free to wear your favourite pyjamas, dressing gown or any kind of fancy dress. Throughout the day we will be sharing books and storytelling.

Last week Carrie's class had a visit from Glyn the nurse who brought in a mannequin and taught the children about breathing and heartbeats. Then everyone had a go at bandaging each other up!

Katie's class has started doing Yoga. Besides being really fun, some of the benefits of Yoga include promoting relaxation, improving the children's listening skills and increasing their co-ordination.

Do you spend £350+ on your weekly food shop?
Would you like to cut the cost of your family's shopping bill?

ITV are looking for families from Cornwall to take part in a brand new, prime time, money saving food programme.
